

Patrick J. Cronin

Lawyer

Paralegal:
Linda Lee

Pat Cronin's practice focuses on litigation and trial in the areas of personal injury, accidental death, medical malpractice, products liability, insurance law and insurance defense for commercial general liability, automobile liability, casualty, property, and other commercial lines of insurance. Pat also acts as an arbitrator, mediator and as a settlement guardian ad litem.

Accidental Death

Pat represents families who have lost a family member due to the negligence of others involving motor vehicle caused deaths and deaths caused by claims of defective products and medical negligence.

Personal Injury

Pat represents clients for personal injury arising from medical negligence, defective products, slip and fall, motor vehicle collisions, boating accidents and other forms of negligence.

Products Liability

Pat represents clients with claims or in defense of claims for personal injury, death or property damage resulting from defective products.

Insurance Law

Pat represents insurers and private clients in claims regarding insurance coverage and claims handling practices.

Insurance Defense

Pat represents clients against claims brought under a policy of insurance, including liability coverage, as well as professional errors and omissions. Pat represents commercial trucking and transportation companies, skilled nursing facilities, multi-family housing owners and commercial businesses for injury and wrongful death claims alleged to have been caused by their negligence.

A Principal in the firm, Pat joined Winston & Cashatt in 1996. During his attendance at Gonzaga Law School, Pat was the Articles Editor for the Gonzaga Law Review. Prior to this, he was the owner of a manufacturers' representative agency in Billings, Montana, and Denver, Colorado, that

Areas of Emphasis

Accidental Death
Personal Injury
Products Liability
Insurance Law
Insurance Defense
Construction Defects
Arbitration/Mediation

Education

Gonzaga University School of Law, J.D., magna cum laude, 1998

San Diego State University, B.S. in Business Administration 1980

Admitted to Practice

Washington State Supreme Court
Idaho State Supreme Court
U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Washington
U.S. District Court for the District of Idaho
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit specialized in supplying commercial, industrial and residential lighting equipment to the construction market.

Professional and Civic Activities

Washington State Bar Association

Idaho State Bar Association

Reported Decisions

New Hampshire Indemnity Co., Inc. v. Budget Rent-A-Car Systems, Inc., 148 Wn.2d 929 (2003)

