

Beverly L. Anderson

Lawyer

A Principal in the firm, Beverly joined Winston & Cashatt in 1984 to focus on creating a research division to assist the litigation attorneys within the firm. She taught legal research and writing at Gonzaga School of Law as an adjunct professor for over 20 years.

Litigation Support

Beverly Anderson's practice focuses on litigation support in most areas in which the firm practices. She provides research and brief writing for case preparation at both the trial and appellate levels, in both state and federal courts. She has been extensively involved in the practice areas of construction, insurance defense, personal injury, employment law, and other commercial litigation.

Appeals

She has extensive background in reviewing trial records, researching and preparing briefs on appeal in both the state and federal systems, and has argued appeals in the Washington State Court of Appeals and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington, D.C.

Professional and Civic Activities

Washington Women Lawyers, Board and Committee Member 2000-present

Adjunct Professor, Gonzaga School of Law, 1991-2008

Washington Women Lawyers, Legacy Award, 2017

Smithmoore P. Meyers Professionalism Award, 2015

Areas of Emphasis

Litigation Support

Appeals

Education

University of Puget Sound School of Law, J.D. 1984

Whitman College, B.A. in Political Science 1981

Admitted to Practice

Washington State Supreme Court

U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Washington

U.S. Court of Appeals, Federal Circuit

U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit

Martindale-Hubbell®

