

Christine M. Meegan

Lawyer

Paralegal:

Jade Rockwood

Originally a Seattle native, Christine moved to Spokane in 2013 to study criminal justice, psychology, and sociology at Gonzaga University. She graduated from Gonzaga University School of Law in August 2021, served as Vice President of the Gonzaga Public Interest Law Project and received the Platinum Pro Bono Distinction. During law school, Christine worked for the Spokane County Public Defenders Office and the Spokane City Public Defenders Office's Community Court program. Prior to joining Winston & Cashatt, she worked for a firm handling both criminal defense and civil litigation, with an emphasis on civil rights. In her spare time, Christine enjoys hiking and exploring with her partner, three dogs, and two cats; strongman training; and knitting.

Areas of Emphasis

Civil Litigation

Employment & Labor

Insurance

Personal Injury & Accidental Death

Education

Gonzaga University School of Law, J.D., 2021

Gonzaga University, B.A. in Criminal
Justice, 2016

Admitted to Practice

Washington, 2023

Idaho, 2024