

Hannah M. Jonus

Lawyer

Paralegal:

Janel Martindale

Hannah Jonus joined Winston & Cashatt in 2025.

Originally from California, Hannah earned her undergraduate degree in Public Policy from the University of Southern California before beginning her career in healthcare consulting in San Francisco. She relocated to Spokane in 2020 to attend Gonzaga University School of Law.

During law school, Hannah served as Production Editor of the Gonzaga Law Review and volunteered with the Moderate Means Program. She also interned at Gonzaga's Immigration Law Clinic, the Federal Defenders of Eastern Washington and Idaho, and a medical malpractice firm in Irvine, California. After graduating cum laude in 2023, Hannah clerked for two years at the Washington State Court of Appeals for the Honorable Rebecca L. Pennell and the Honorable Megan K. Murphy.

In her free time, Hannah can be found enjoying a good book, hitting the ski slopes at Schweitzer, catching a concert at the Pavilion, or spending quality time with family.

Areas of Emphasis

Civil Litigation

Insurance Defense

Trust & Estate Litigation

Education

Gonzaga University School of Law, J.D.,
Cum Laude, 2023

University of Southern California, B.S. in
Public Policy, Cum Laude, 2017

Admitted to Practice

Washington, 2024